DETAILS OF Bradford Suites

How we run Short-let for Rental Income:

At Bradford Suites, we will be managing your apartment for a monthly short-let rental. The management of the property involves marketing the apartment to get well vetted tenants to occupy your unit(s) as well as managing all operations that encompasses maintenance, repairs, providing security, electricity and other amenities efficiently for the occupants. We will also send monthly reports to you detailing the breakdown of the rent paid for your unit(s) which includes the rent amount, management fee, service charge, petrol deposit and the net rental income after these deductions will be remitted to the bank account you will provide.

The projected yearly rental income for a studio apartment is an average of N7,200,000 and for a one bedroom apartment, the rental income will be an average of N12,000,000 and for a two bedroom apartment, the rental income will be an average of N18,000,000.
